

About the Trilith Spring Internship Program:

The spring Trilith Internship Program is with the Trilith Institute, the educational arm of the Trilith Ecosystem. This semester-long work-study program is designed to integrate current students or recent graduates into Georgia's entertainment industry while providing resume-building experience.

Interns will learn transferable skills and gain real-world experience while building their careers in the Georgia film industry, all the while being a part of the Trilith ecosystem in the town of Trilith, giving students access to live and work alongside industry professionals across multiple companies in the industry.

Interns will spend the majority of their time working directly with the Trilith Institute. Each intern will have the opportunity to network across the full Trilith ecosystem, and attend all Trilith Institute events and programming.
